If the debit is recurring and the date of the debit falls on a non-banking day, the debit will hit your account on the next banking day and will not hit your account prior to the authorized date.

Note: For varying amounts the company must send, based on the NACHA Operating Rules, written notification of the amount and the date on or after which the transfer will be debited at least ten calendar days in advance of the debit. If the date varies, the Rules state that the Originator must send the Receiver notification of new date at least seven calendar days in advance of the debit.

This authority is to remain in full force and effect until Company has received written notification from me (or either of us) of its termination in such time and manner as to afford Company and Financial Institution a reasonable opportunity to act on it.
