The City of Millersville is pleased to announce the selection of Stephen Hale as the next Chief of Police for the City. Chief Hale comes to Millersville from Nolensville Police Department where he served as a Lieutenant and led their Department through the National Accreditation process. He has also previously served with the LaVergne, Metro Nashville and Murfreesboro Police Departments. He has completed the FBI Academy - Session 289 in March of 2024 and the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) State Academy – Session 10 in 2021.

Chief Hale is a veteran of both the United States Navy where he served as an Intelligence Analyst and the United States Marine Corps where he served as a Squad Leader. He currently holds a Master's degree in Theological Studies and is pursuing his PhD in Criminal Justice.

Chief Hale brings a wide range of experience to Millersville and is looking forward to working with the community leadership to move the department forward. He hopes to meet with local business owners and begin community outreach programs. He plans to equip our officers with better equipment through grants he is working on already.

Chief Hale will be sworn in on Monday, May 5th at City Hall in Millersville at 1 p.m. The public is invited to attend.
